Jimmy was born and raised in Garnerville, and attended St. Gregory Barbarigo, Albertus Magnus, and RCC.

He was a son, a brother, an uncle, and a friend . . .

until he was killed by a hit-and-run driver in Pearl River on May 31, 2009.

Let's not forget this kind Rockland man whose killer has still not been found.

Join us as we honor Jimmy's love of life by saving the lives of others in need through blood donation that some good may come of this awful tragedy.

Eat well and drink fluids before donating. Bring I.D.
